

Enabling Good Lives

Invites you to meet the Enabling Good Lives Independent Facilitators

An Enabling Good Lives Independent Facilitator is an independent ally who assists a disabled person and their family to dream big, make a plan for the future and connect with their local community.

Please join us for pizza on Saturday, 3 March 2018,
10am – 12pm at Christchurch Community House
301 Tuam Street, Christchurch

We will start the session with a brief discussion on:

- What Enabling Good Lives is all about
- What an Independent Facilitator does
- The steps in the EGL journey
- Any questions you might have

The rest of the time will be for you to chat with the facilitators and with other families.

This invitation is open to all ORS funded students who are considering leaving school in 2018, their families and supporters.

This is an accessible venue and an NZSL interpreter will be provided.

For catering purposes please RSVP by 23rd February to Hannah at:

hannah@eglives.co.nz

Or phone/text 021 035 4134

We very much look forward to seeing you there!
